January 16, 2024

Panther Families,

Happy 2024 and welcome to quarter 3! This quarter kicks off with Parent-Teacher Conferences! As we approach conferences, we want to provide you with some important information and encourage your active participation in this valuable opportunity to connect with your child's teachers.

Parent-Teacher Conferences are scheduled for January 18th and 19th, and we believe that these meetings play a crucial role in fostering a strong partnership between parents, teachers, and students. During these conferences, you will have the chance to discuss your child's progress, academic performance, and any concerns or questions you may have. Please note that both Thursday, January 18th and Friday, January 19th, are both early release days at 11:30am.

To make the most out of your Parent-Teacher Conference, we suggest considering the following questions to ask your child's teachers:

- What are my child's strengths in the classroom?
- Are there any specific assignments or projects my child excelled in recently?
- How can I support my child's learning at home?
- What are the upcoming topics or units my child will be studying?

We look forward to welcoming you to Parent-Teacher Conferences and believe that these meetings will strengthen the collaborative effort between home and school. If you haven't already, please sign up for your preferred time slot with your child's homeroom teacher. If you encounter any issues or have questions, feel free to contact our school office.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment to your child's education.

Smiles,

Ashley Grant
